

Addendum 1

Student Packet

1. Before the tour activity---pgs. 1 through 3
2. During and after tour activities---pgs. 4 and 5
3. Architecture quiz

Before the Tour (pg. 1)
The McAllister House,
A Treasure Hunt for the Eyes

Match the pictures with their descriptions. Put the letter in the space under its matching picture. Be ready to explain your choice.

PARLOR

- a. There is a box that entertains, but does not talk.
- b. This pillow is not for sleeping.
- c. It looks like a keyboard but does not sound like a piano.

If a student has prepared to then make presentation

LIBRARY

- d. This blows on a fire to make it burn more brightly.
- e. These have horsehair stuffing.
- f. These will make your words & pictures bigger.

DINING ROOM

- g. This little animal is very friendly, but it does not move.
- h. This is a door that doesn't look like a door.
- i. These hold an item to clean your face and hands and keep your lap clean.

KITCHEN

- j. This takes out pits, but you don't dig a hole.
- k. This box has warm air, but does not bake.
- l. This keeps flies and children's fingers away from Mother's cookies.

CHILDREN'S BEDROOM

- m. We are very small and kept our little owner company for many years.
- n. It took the place of a bathroom on cold winter nights
- o. It was read but never published.

EAST BEDROOM

I am woven from something human

What makes you think of Rock-a-by-baby?

If a lady sticks her foot in, I'll pull off an article of clothing.

ATTIC:

How might the McAllister children have used the attic?

During the Tour (pg. 4)
The McAllister House,
A Treasure Hunt for the Eyes

You are the detective! WHEN YOU GO, BE ON THE LOOKOUT and put a check mark in the box of every item you see as you tour the McAllister House.

THE ROOMS

PARLOR

There is a box that entertains, but does not talk.

This pillow is not for sleeping.

It looks like a keyboard but does not sound like a piano.

LIBRARY

This blows on a fire to make it burn more brightly.

These have horsehair stuffing.

These will make your words & pictures bigger.

DINING ROOM

This little animal is very friendly, but it does not move.

This is a door that doesn't look like a door.

These hold an item to clean your face and hands and keep your lap clean.

KITCHEN

This takes out pits, but you don't dig a hole.

This box has warm air, but does not bake.

This keeps flies and children's fingers away from Mother's cookies.

CHILDREN'S BEDROOM

We are very small and kept our little owner company for many years.

It took the place of a bathroom on cold winter nights.

It was read but never published.

EAST BEDROOM

I am woven from something human.

What makes you think of Rock-a-by-baby?

If a lady sticks her foot in, I'll pull off an article of clothing.

During the Tour (pg.5)
The McAllister House,
A Treasure Hunt for the Eyes

Rooms

ATTIC

How might the McAllister children have used the attic?

After the tour

Discussion and writing activities

On your tour, what did you see that was on your list and how was each used?

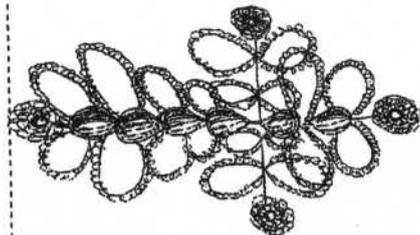

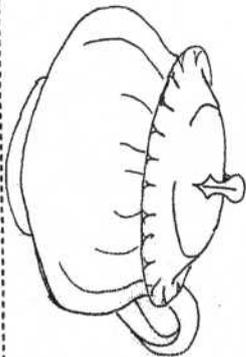

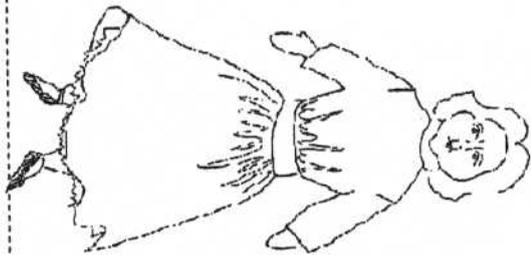

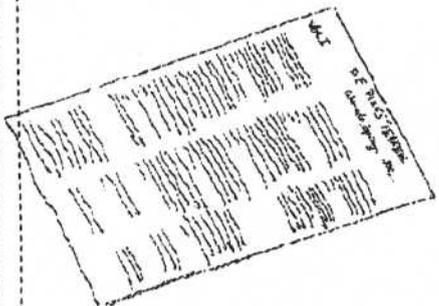

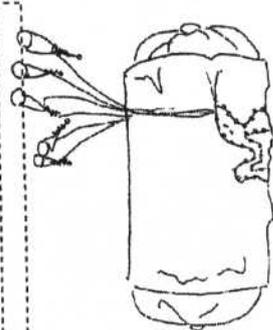

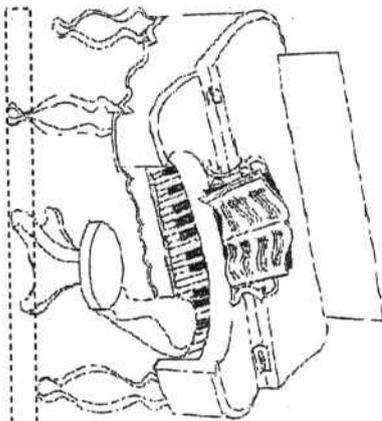

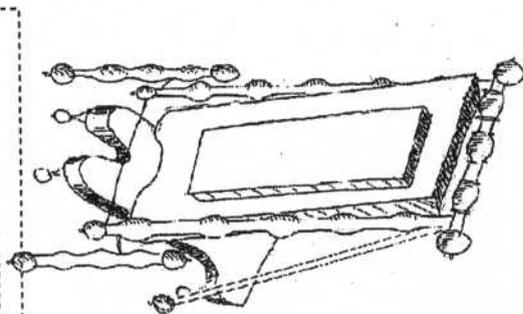

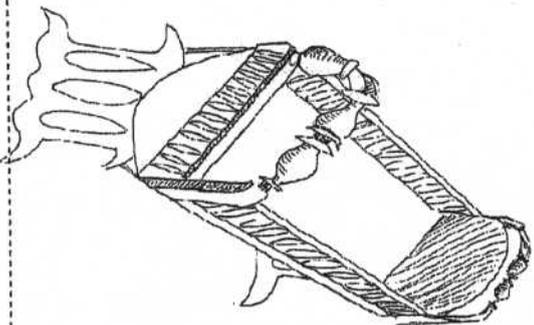

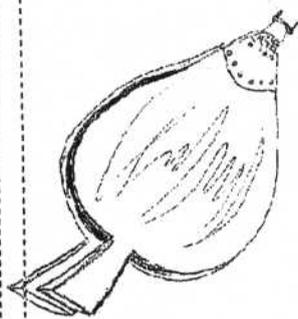

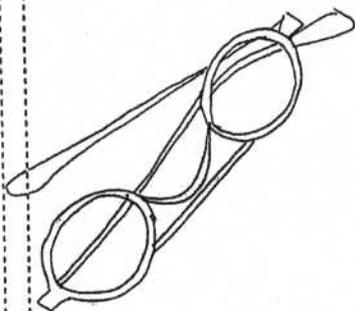

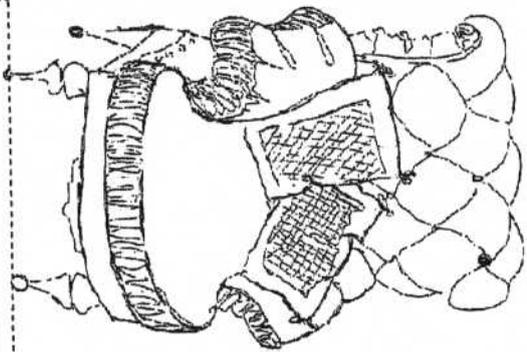

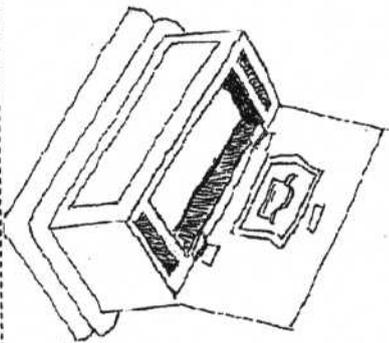

On a separate piece of paper, write answers to each of the following questions.

1. What do you think was the most interesting and/or useful item you saw and why?

2. If you had lived in the 1800s, how would life have been different for you? The same?

3. If you could visit with the McAllister family today, what would you like to ask them or what would you like to do on your visit?

4. What of importance did you learn on your visit to the McAllister House?

Architecture Quiz

1. A "dormer" is a window with its own roof. Can you find 2 (two) dormers on the McAllister House?
Where are they? 1. _____
2. _____
2. A "bay window" is a set of windows that project out from the house. Can you find a bay window on the McAllister House? How many windows are in the set? _____
3. A "quatrefoil" is a shape like a flower with 4 (four) petals. There are lots of quatrefoils on the McAllister House. How many can you find? _____
4. "Quions" (pronounced "coins") are pieces of stone along the corners of a building. Find quions on the McAllister House. Draw the shape on the back of this paper.
5. "Lintels" are pieces of stone across the tops of windows and doors to hold up the building above the opening. How many lintels can you find on the McAllister House? _____
6. Can you find a window-seat on the outside of the McAllister House?
Where? _____
7. How many chimneys are on the house? _____
8. How many doors are on the house? (Look all around and count double doors as one door) _____